

Capital and Business Alliance with VietinBank

Tokyo, December 27, 2012--- The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. (President Nobuyuki Hirano, “BTMU”) announced today that it has entered into the Subscription Agreement and the Technical Support and Collaboration Agreement with Vietnam Joint Stock Commercial Bank for Industry and Trade (“VietinBank”), one of the top state-owned commercial banks in Vietnam. BTMU will acquire approximately 20% of VietinBank’s ordinary shares, subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions precedents, and will appoint 2 directors of the VietinBank board. VietinBank will become an equity method affiliate of BTMU.

1. Reason for Capital and Business Alliance

As a part of a strategy aiming to further develop BTMU’s Asian business, the alliance aims, through collaboration between BTMU and VietinBank, to expand business through measures such as strengthening support for Japanese companies operating in Vietnam, where high growth is expected.

Vietnam has achieved consistently high economic growth for a long time and represents a market with high potential for the further expansion of financial services. Moreover, Vietnam has a close relationship with Japan, with many Japanese companies operating in the Vietnamese market.

VietinBank is one of the major Vietnamese state-owned commercial banks by asset size, offering diversified financial services and possessing a wide client base, nationwide branch network and good access to local information in Vietnam.

Since the opening of Ho Chi Minh City Branch in 1996 and Hanoi Branch in 1998, BTMU has been supporting Japanese companies in Vietnam. Through this alliance with VietinBank, BTMU seeks to further strengthen its offering of comprehensive financial services in Vietnam and meet the diverse financial needs of its customers.

2. Outline of Capital Alliance

- (1) Transaction: BTMU will acquire approximately 20% (after dilution) of VietinBank through a private placement of newly issued shares. BTMU will become the second largest shareholder next to the Government of Vietnam. VietinBank will become an equity method affiliate of BTMU
- (2) Investment Amount: Approximately VND 15.5 trillion
(approximately JPY 63.1 billion, approximately USD 742 million)
- (3) Acquisition Price: VND 24,000 per share
- (4) Implementation Date: The transaction is expected to close during 2013, subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions precedents
- (5) Board Representation: BTMU will appoint 2 directors of the VietinBank board

3. Outline of Business Alliance

Leveraging both institutions' financial know-how and client base, BTMU will enhance the services it provides to Japanese companies operating in Vietnam, such as cash management services and settlement services, etc.

In addition, BTMU will provide technical support to VietinBank in order to further develop its banking operations and management, through providing expertise in areas such as risk management, etc.
