

Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (Mexico), S.A. opens Leon Office

Tokyo, March 15, 2016 --- Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (Mexico), S.A. (BTMU Mexico), a subsidiary of The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. (BTMU) (President: Nobuyuki Hirano), has opened its new office yesterday and commenced operations, in the city of Leon, Guanajuato, Mexico.

Leon is located in the center of Mexican central plateau (known as the “Bajio area”) where many Japanese auto manufacturers and auto-related companies have significantly expanded their business in recent years and Bajio is becoming the hub for the automotive sector in Mexico, resulting in Mexico becoming the world’s 7th largest country in the auto production. Since the country regards the automotive sector as one of the pillars of economic growth, further inward investment in the Bajio area is expected.

Since The Bank of Tokyo, Ltd., a predecessor of BTMU, opened its Mexico City Representative Office in 1958, BTMU has endeavored to enhance its service for customers in Mexico. The Leon Office, which is BTMU Mexico’s second office, following its Mexico City Head Office, reinforces BTMU’s network in Mexico.

Through its new Leon Office, BTMU Mexico plans to contribute to the development of its customers’ business in the area by providing more convenient financial services. By making the fullest use of the top network among Japanese banks, BTMU Mexico will strive to provide fuller financial services to respond to customers’ diverse needs.

(Outline of the Leon Office)

Official Name : Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (Mexico), S.A. Leon Office

Address : Blvd. Adolfo Lopez Mateos 1717 Piso 10, Col. Los Gavilanes, Leon, Guanajuato, C.P.
37270, Mexico