MUFG Bank Increases Shareholdings in Bank Danamon and Bank BNP

Jakarta/Tokyo, April 29, 2019 --- MUFG's core banking subsidiary MUFG Bank announced today that according to the previously announced merger plan, its shareholding in PT Bank Danamon Indonesia, Tbk. ("Bank Danamon") has increased from 40.0% to 94.0%, as part of Step3 of the proposed transaction outlined in its announcement on December 26, 2017^[1]. In addition, its shareholding in PT Bank Nusantara Parahyangan Tbk. ("Bank BNP"), in which MUFG's consolidated subsidiary ACOM CO., LTD. ("ACOM")^[2] holds a 67.6% stake, has increased from 7.9% to 99.9%.

Consequently, Bank Danamon and Bank BNP have become consolidated subsidiaries of MUFG and MUFG Bank. Bank BNP and Bank Danamon will complete the legal merger on May 1, 2019.

For further details of the overall transaction please refer to our announcement dated December 26, 2017^[1].

MUFG and MUFG Bank have strengthened their commercial banking business through the establishment of business platforms across Southeast Asia via strategic investments and other measures. Upon completion of the merger, MUFG will drive further collaboration and synergies with Bank Danamon (as the surviving bank post-merger) and other partner banks. MUFG will provide clients with comprehensive financial services in Indonesia, and contribute to the growth of Indonesian economy.
