BTMU signs agreement with Invest Lithuania

Tokyo, May 10, 2013--- The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. ("BTMU") (President: Nobuyuki Hirano) is pleased to announce that BTMU together with its subsidiary, the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (Poland) S.A. ("BTMUP") signed an Agreement On Cooperation with Invest Lithuania on May 8, 2013.

With the signing of this agreement, BTMU and BTMUP will closely collaborate with Invest Lithuania by organizing joint events to provide information and assistance to Japanese companies interested in investing in the Republic of Lithuania.

The Republic of Lithuania has the largest population and area among Baltic countries. It has been a member of EU since 2004 and will succeed the Presidency of the Council of EU in the latter half of 2013.

Invest Lithuania is a Lithuanian government agency owned by the Ministry of Economy of the Republic of Lithuania that provides free advice and introductions between on-the-ground experts and global companies interested in doing business in Lithuania.

Signing the Agreement with Invest Lithuania, BTMU and BTMUP aim to provide an enhanced range of financial services to meet the diverse needs of its valued customers entering the Republic of Lithuania.