

Prospectus/Telephone Calls/ Emails to Retail Investors Purporting to be from MUFG Bank, Ltd

It has come to the attention of MUFG Bank, Ltd in Australia that an unrelated entity is fraudulently marketing a Fixed Income Prospectus to Australian investors. This is a scam targeted at individuals in an attempt to illicit personal information and steal money.

We note that this Prospectus is not issued by any MUFG entity in Australia or otherwise and we advise investors not to invest in this product.

We further note that MUFG Bank, Ltd in Australia does not offer products or services to retail customers.

If as an investor, you are approached with respect to this or any other Prospectus purporting to be issued by MUFG, please report this matter to ASIC and the ACCC through their websites. Further advice on how to protect yourself against identity theft can be found here: <https://www.cyber.gov.au/acsc/view-all-content/threats/identity-theft>.

We also suggest that if you are impacted by this scam that you report it to the ACCC at <https://www.scamwatch.gov.au/>.

All investors should seek independent advice with respect to investment decisions.

MUFG Bank
August 2021