FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

“What to do in case of overpayment?”

“You can either file for a refund, request a tax credit for future payments, or file an amended return to correct any errors. For more details and required forms, visit the BIR official website at www.bir.gov.ph”

“Can maker approve or be the final approver for the same transaction?”

“No, the maker creates the transaction, while a separate approver must approve for security and control reasons.”

“What is the maximum number of approvals?”

“BancNet allows up to 8 checkers and 1 final approver per transaction depending on the bank’s specific settings and internal control policies.”

“Can client pay a different TIN?”

“No, the payment must be made using the correct TIN assigned to the taxpayer to ensure proper tax crediting and compliance.”

“Why “proceed to payment” fails?”

“It can be caused by network issues, incorrect details, or technical problems. You can contact the Bank support for help if the issue persists.”

“How long is the retention period of data?”

“Data retention is only 4 months for eGov BancNet websites.”

“How to reject payment transaction?”

“Press “Cancel” to reject payment. It will still show up in the list with the status “cancelled”.”

“Can we delete payment transaction?”

“No, deletion of records is not possible.”
