MUFG deepens APAC management bench with senior appointments in sector coverage and project finance

Singapore, 31 May 2022 – MUFG Bank, Ltd. (MUFG) has made two strategic appointments within its Global Corporate & Investment Banking unit in Asia Pacific to spearhead greater growth of its regional franchise:

- Mr. Scott Campbell as Head of Sector Coverage, Asia Pacific. He will be responsible for sharpening MUFG's strategic focus around key industries¹, with the aim of delivering multi-product solutions, including corporate acquisition finance, to sectoral relationships and strengthening its overall client coverage across the region.
- Mr. Shivanan Sivarajah as Head of Project Finance for Asia. He will be responsible for enhancing the bank's reputation as Asia's premier project finance house by adapting the business to market changes and providing best-in-class solutions for clients across the region (excluding Japan and Oceania).

Both Messrs. Campbell and Sivarajah are existing MUFG senior executives, having joined the bank in 2019. Their new appointments take effect tomorrow (1st June), and they are both based in Singapore. Mr. Campbell will report to Mr. Yutaka Fujishiro, Deputy Head of Global Corporate & Investment Banking for Asia Pacific, while Mr. Sivarajah will report to Mr. Tatsuya Konishi, Head of Investment Banking for Asia Pacific (AIBD).

The appointment of senior MUFG bankers for these key roles underscores the bank's commitment not only towards leveraging the right talent for each role, but on cultivating its internal talent pool for further success.

Mr. Campbell has over 20 years' experience across Asia Pacific spanning disciplines from leveraged and acquisition finance, infrastructure origination and execution to loan distribution for non-bank financial institutions (NBFI). He joined MUFG as Deputy Head of Utilities, Infrastructure and Transport (UIT) and broadened his role in Nov 2020 to Head of UIT for Asia Pacific, helping the bank make strong headway in its up-tiering efforts in this sector. Prior to MUFG, Mr. Campbell was in Hong Kong for over five years, helming leadership roles building out Natixis' NBFI business and ANZ's acquisition and leveraged finance presence in North Asia.

Appointment Announcement

Mr. Sivarajah has over 20 years of experience in corporate and investment banking across Europe and Asia Pacific, covering disciplines including project finance, leveraged & acquisition finance, sector coverage and debt capital markets. He joined MUFG as Head of Energy & Resources and helped develop a more focused client set within the sector while spearheading the origination and execution of high value mandates as well as regional energy transition initiatives. Prior to MUFG, Mr. Sivarajah had spent 9 years with ING Bank building up its project finance franchise as its Head of Offshore Energy APAC, Energy Sector.

Mr. Richard Yorke, Executive Officer and Head of Global Corporate & Investment Banking for Asia Pacific, said: “Since joining MUFG in 2019, Scott and Shiv have wasted no time putting their extensive experience and sector knowledge to work in enhancing MUFG’s regional profile and delivering excellent results for our GCIB business.

“These two new appointments reflect MUFG’s commitment towards cultivating and leveraging the right talent for each role. It also demonstrates our ongoing focus on achieving greater alignment and seamless execution of our strategy through the strengthening of our management bench. I look forward to Scott and Shiv’s further contributions as we scale up and deepen our business franchise across the region,” he added.
