MUFG appoints Manoj Bhatia as Global Head of Corporate Global Subsidiary Banking

Singapore, 1 July 2022 – MUFG Bank, Ltd. (MUFG) has appointed Mr. Manoj Bhatia as Global Head of Corporate Global Subsidiary Banking (GSB), with effect from today.

In this newly-created role, Mr. Bhatia will be responsible for establishing a “One MUFG” business model that would enhance the bank’s global GSB franchise and further connect its global corporate clients to opportunities worldwide by leveraging MUFG’s extensive network.

Mr. Bhatia will continue to carry out his current responsibilities as Head of GSB Asia Pacific, reporting to Richard Yorke, Head of Global Corporate & Investment Banking, Asia Pacific. He will continue to be based in Singapore and for his new global appointment, report to Mr. Shinichi Sato, Head of GCIB Planning Division in Tokyo.

Mr. Bhatia joined the bank as Head of GSB for Asia & Oceania in August 2018 and broadened his role to cover the Asia Pacific region in November 2020. Prior to joining MUFG, Mr. Bhatia was Head of Citibank’s Asia-Pacific Regional Account management team with the MNC Banking Business. He joined Citicorp in India at the start of his career and eventually relocated to Citibank’s Singapore office in 2008 to cover its portfolio of US and European global relationships across Asia Pacific.

Reiterating MUFG’s commitment to cultivating its internal talent pool for growth, Mr. Yorke said: “Manoj has been instrumental in deepening our GSB business in Asia Pacific and driving the bank’s reputation as a trusted partner for multinationals keen on tapping into the region’s vast potential.

“More significantly, appointing a seasoned banker and APAC specialist like Manoj to this new global role underscores the indispensability of this region to MUFG’s global franchise. I look forward to seeing Manoj achieve further heights for our overall GCIB business and further align APAC with MUFG’s global network for greater success,” he added.
