Support for Relief Activities for the Pneumonia Related to the New Coronavirus in the People's Republic of China

Tokyo, February 4, 2020 --- MUFG Bank would like to express its deepest condolences on the loss of lives to the pneumonia caused by a new strain of coronavirus which is spreading mainly in the city of Wuhan in Hubei Province, People's Republic of China, and offer our sincerest sympathies to the patients who are suffering from pneumonia induced by the virus.

To support the relief activities being carried out in China for the coronavirus-induced pneumonia, MUFG Bank will donate RMB 500,000 to Hubei Charity Federation from its wholly-owned subsidiary MUFG Bank (China).

MUFG Bank will also donate surgical masks and disinfectant solutions, as well as protective clothing, goggles, gloves, and shoe covers for medical purposes to local medical institutions to help ensure the safety of medical staff while they treat patients.

We wish all patients who have contracted the pneumonia a rapid recovery and pray that the spread of the virus comes to an end as soon as possible.
