

Officer, Corporate Banking

Responsibilities

- Reporting to the Manager and will be responsible for all aspects of the finance and marketing of the department.
- To provide client with corporate banking facilities and make recommendations for credit approvals.
- To take charge of portfolio of corporate customers and attend to the annual renewals and credit administration of each customer.
- Promotion and cross selling of bank's existing and new products.

Requirements

- The candidate must have a recognized Degree in Economics or Business majoring in Finance or Accountancy or its equivalent with minimum 1 year related working experience in a financial institution.
- Possess good communication and interpersonal skills with knowledge in computer especially MS Office.
- Proficient in English and those who are able to speak in Japanese would be an advantage.
- Self motivated individual who can accept challenges and with clear objective to achieve organizational goals.
- Fresh graduates are also encouraged to apply.