

MASTER TERMS OF BUSINESS FOR BANKING

INTRODUCTION

The Master Terms of Business (as defined below) sets forth the terms and conditions that govern the operation of all present and future accounts, including but not limited to deposits (each an “Account”), that you maintain with the Bank as designated in an account application, any account opening documentation, or similar on-boarding documentation (hereinafter referred to as “Account Opening Forms”), and are binding on you and the Bank that holds the Account. In addition, the Master Terms of Business shall apply to all Account-related products and services which are expressed to be subject to this Master Terms of Business (each a “Service”).

References to “the Bank”, “us”, “we”, or “our” shall mean MUFG Bank Ltd. and any of its affiliates that hold an Account for a Customer. If the Bank has more than one branch, then “Bank” means the branch where the Account is held or the branch that performs the Service (as the case may be). References to the “Customer”, “you”, or “your” shall mean the entity (including its successors in title and assignees to the extent permitted hereunder) to which the Bank, as an independent contractor, provides Accounts and Services.

This Master Terms of Business includes, in each case as may be amended, varied, supplemented or superseded from time to time, the terms and conditions set forth in: (i) this agreement; (ii) the country-specific terms of business for each country where the Account is held, as applicable (each a “Country Addendum”); (iii) additional service and/or other agreements (each a “Supplement”); (iv) Account Opening Forms; and (v) other Account-related documentation, including signature cards.

Each Supplement and Country Addendum shall be deemed to include the terms and conditions of this Master Terms of Business. The Master Terms of Business supersedes all prior agreements or terms as to matters within its scope. In the event of any inconsistency between the Master Terms of Business, a Country Addendum, and/or a Supplement, the relevant Country Addendum shall prevail, followed by the Supplement, and then the Master Terms of Business to the extent of such inconsistency.

By signing an Account Opening Form, signature card, or such other documents as may be necessary in relation to the opening of an Account, or by using or continuing to use an Account or Service, the Customer acknowledges that it has reviewed, understands, and agrees to be bound to the Master Terms of Business, as amended, varied, supplemented or superseded from time to time.

I. ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES

1. Account Products and Services. The Bank offers a variety of account products, including interest and non-interest bearing Accounts. For Accounts which are interest bearing, the Bank shall pay interest on the applicable credit balance in accordance with the terms, conditions, and rates established from time to time by the Bank, in accordance with Applicable Law (as defined below), for the type of Account. Due to market interest rate conditions, subject to Applicable Law, the rate applied by the Bank to Accounts may be negative, in which case the Customer may be required to make a negative rate payment, which the Bank shall also be entitled to collect by debiting the Account. In addition to Accounts, the Bank makes available various Services, as further described in this Master Terms of Business and in the additional Supplement(s), as applicable.
2. Our Relationship. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, our relationship with you will be that of debtor and creditor. No fiduciary, quasi-fiduciary or other special relationship exists between you and us. We owe you a duty of ordinary care. Any internal process or procedure of the Bank that we may maintain in excess of Industry Standards (as defined below) or Applicable Law is solely for our own benefit and shall not impose a higher standard of care than otherwise would apply in its absence. Please consult with your business, legal or tax advisors to ensure an Account or Service offered by the Bank is appropriate for you before you establish an Account or Service with the Bank.

II. OPERATIONS AND ACCOUNT ACTIVITY

1. Deposits.
 - i. Availability of Funds; Credits Not Received. Credits and deposits to an Account will be available in accordance with Applicable Law. If the Bank credits an Account: (i) in contemplation of receiving funds for the Customer’s credit and those funds are not actually received by the Bank; or (ii) in reliance on a transaction which is subsequently returned, reversed, set aside or revoked; or (iii) if the Bank does not receive funds for the Customer’s credit for value on the date advised by or on behalf of the Customer; or (iv)

if final settlement is not received by the Bank for any reason, the Bank shall, as permitted by Applicable Law, be entitled to debit any Account of the Customer with the amount previously credited and/or with any other Fees (as defined below) incurred, even if doing so creates or increases an overdraft.

- ii. Processing Incoming Items. All drafts, checks, bills of exchange, notes, and other financial instruments, including any image or reproduction of the foregoing (“Items”), deposited or cashed are received for collection only, and received subject to final payment. The Bank may agree with other banks and clearing houses to vary procedures regarding the collection or return of Items, and deadlines to the extent permitted by Applicable Law and Industry Standards. The Bank will present Items in accordance with the custom and practice of the jurisdiction in which the Items are handled for collection. The Bank is not responsible for actions or omissions of other banks, nor for the loss or destruction of any Item in the possession of other banks or in transit. The Customer shall use reasonable efforts to assist the Bank in locating or obtaining replacements of Items lost while in the Bank’s possession.
 - iii. Collection Basis Processing. If the Bank accepts an Item for collection, the Bank will send it to the institution upon which it is drawn but will not credit your Account for the amount until the Bank has received final, non-reversible, payment in accordance with Applicable Law and Industry Standards. If the Bank elects to credit your Account before then, the Bank may charge the amount back against the Account if the Bank does not receive payment for any reason.
2. Payment of Items. The Bank is authorized, subject to Applicable Law, to pay any Item that bears a signature or endorsement resembling that of an Authorized Individual (as defined below). We may honor Items drawn against your Account by persons you have identified as being Authorized Individuals, even if the Items are made payable to them, or for deposit to their personal accounts.
 3. Electronic Processing: Specifications. The Bank may process Items by electronic means, in which case, the Bank’s exercise of ordinary care in payment of that Item does not obligate the Bank to inspect the Item during the automated payment process. All Items issued by the Customer against any Account must comply with Industry Standards as updated from time to time.

III. FUNDS TRANSFER INSTRUCTIONS

1. Processing Funds Transfers. The Customer may issue funds transfer instructions against an Account, subject to the Bank’s acceptance. Funds transfer instructions will be received, processed, and transmitted only on the Bank’s funds transfer business days, and within the Bank’s established cut-off hours on such days. In processing a funds transfer instruction, the Bank will debit the Customer’s Account for the amount of each funds transfer instruction accepted by the Bank, and the Customer authorizes the Bank to debit the Account for, or deduct from the amount of the funds transfer, all associated Fees, including debit and credit processing charges. In processing a funds transfer other banks may deduct Fees from the funds transfer. If your instructions indicate that charges for a payment are for the account of the beneficiary, you authorize us (as applicable only) to deduct applicable charges from the principal amount of the payment and instruct subsequent intermediary banks to collect charges from the beneficiary. You must complete and transmit all funds transfer instructions to the Bank in the form, format, and manner that the Bank specifies. Our acceptance of one or more late or nonconforming funds transfers will not be deemed our agreement to accept such transfers on an ongoing basis, and we may discontinue accepting such funds transfers without prior notice to you.
2. Acting on Instructions. The Customer does not have the right to cancel or amend any funds transfer instruction after the Bank receives it. Although the Bank may attempt to act on any amendment or cancellation request the Customer makes, the Bank assumes no responsibility for failing or refusing to do so. Notwithstanding any instructions by the Customer to the contrary, and as applicable, the Bank reserves the right to use any funds transfer system and any intermediary bank in the execution of any funds transfer instructions and may otherwise use any means of executing the funds transfer instruction that Bank deems reasonable in the circumstances.
3. Inconsistent Name and Number. The Bank and other financial institutions, including the beneficiary’s financial institution, may rely upon the identifying number of the beneficiary, the beneficiary’s bank and any intermediary bank included in a funds transfer instruction, even if it identifies a person or entity different from the beneficiary, the beneficiary’s bank or intermediary bank identified by name.
4. Security Procedures. When issuing funds transfer instructions, you agree to follow the security procedures communicated by us, and you shall be bound by such security procedures for issuance of a payment against your Account. We may process any funds transfer we believe is transmitted or authorized by you if we act in compliance with a security procedure agreed upon by you and us. A security procedure may require the use of algorithms or codes, including call back procedures or security devices. It is understood that the purpose of the security procedure is to verify the authenticity of, and not to detect errors in, payment orders. We assume no responsibility to detect errors in a funds transfer (e.g., duplicate transfers), even if we may take certain actions from time to time to do so. Any funds transfer instruction, the authenticity of which has been verified through such security procedure, shall be effective as if made by you, whether or not authorized by you. For SWIFT, the security procedures shall be the authentication procedures established by SWIFT. An authenticated SWIFT message issued to us in your name shall be deemed to have been given by a person authorized to act on your behalf, whether or not in fact authorized by you. Accordingly, it is your responsibility to ensure that your funds transfer operations and systems are safeguarded and protected. The Bank may verify the authenticity of a written (including those transmitted by facsimile or email) funds transfer instruction by conducting a telephone call-back to a person at the number the Customer has indicated in writing is authorized to receive such calls on its behalf, or otherwise act on its behalf. You agree that this security procedure is commercially reasonable for your funds transfers.

5. Foreign Exchange. If the Bank accepts a funds transfer issued in the Customer's name for payment in a currency (the "Non-Account Currency") other than the currency of the Account (the "Account Currency"), the Bank is authorized to enter into a foreign exchange transaction to sell to the Customer the amount of Non-Account Currency required to complete the funds transfer and to debit the Account for the purchase price of the Non-Account Currency. If the Bank accepts a funds transfer instruction for payment to the Account in a Non Account Currency, the Bank is authorized to purchase the Non Account Currency from the Customer and to credit the purchase price to the Customer's Account in lieu of the Non Account Currency. Subject to Applicable Law, the purchase price for the foregoing transactions shall be at a rate and spread as the Bank may determine in its discretion and may differ from rates at which comparable transactions are entered into with other customers or the range of foreign exchange rates at which the Bank otherwise enters into a foreign exchange transactions on the relevant date. Any such foreign exchange transaction will be between the Bank and the Customer as principals, and the Bank will not be acting as agent or fiduciary for the Customer. Foreign transfers may be subject to substantial delays, changes in foreign currency exchange rates and charges imposed by other financial institutions that may be deducted from the amount of the transfer. A portion of those charges may be shared with the Bank.

IV. AUTHORIZED INDIVIDUALS

1. Authorized Individuals. The Customer agrees that it will provide the Bank with such document (in form and substance acceptable to the Bank) that identifies the person(s) authorized to act on behalf of the Customer (each an "Authorized Individual") with respect to an Account or Service. The Bank is authorized to rely upon any notice, request, waiver, consent, or other document which the Bank reasonably believes to be genuine and transmitted by an Authorized Individual. The Customer will provide a specimen signature, in addition to such contact information for each Authorized Individual in the form and manner requested by the Bank. The Customer shall notify the Bank immediately in writing of any change to an Authorized Individual.

The Bank shall be entitled to rely upon the identity and authority of an Authorized Individual and may continue to honor Items and instructions given thereby, until the authority of such Authorized Individual is withdrawn by the Customer by written notice to the Bank and provided that the Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice. In some instances the Bank may require the Customer to close its Account or provide the Customer with stop payment orders in order to prevent transactions from occurring.

2. Conflicting Demands. If there is any uncertainty regarding the ownership of an Account, there are conflicting demands over its ownership or control, the Bank is unable to determine any person's authority to give us instructions, or the Bank believes a transaction may be fraudulent or may violate any Applicable Law, the Bank may, at its sole discretion: (1) subject to Applicable Law, freeze the Account and/or refuse transactions relating thereto until the Bank received written proof (in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank) of each person's right and authority over the account and its funds; (2) refuse transactions and return Items; (3) request instructions from a court of competent jurisdiction; and/or (4) continue to honor instructions given to the Bank by any person who appears as an Authorized Individual according to the Bank's records. The existence of the rights set forth above shall not impose an obligation on the Bank to assert such rights or to deny a transaction.

V. INTEREST, FEES, TAXES, AND OTHER CHARGES

1. Fees. The Customer agrees to promptly pay any and all fees, costs, and other charges ("Fees"), as well as any interest owing to the Bank, relating to an Account or Service. Fees are set forth in the Bank's standard fee schedule, tariff guide or similar document, or as separately agreed with the Customer. If permitted by Applicable Law, the Bank may deduct Fees and/or any interest automatically from the Customer's Accounts (individually or collectively), even if such debit creates or increases an overdraft of the Account. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, subject to Applicable Law, the Bank may modify any Fees by providing notice to the Customer, and/or via posting Fees on the Bank's website. Such change shall be effective on the date specified by such notice and/or website.

2. Taxes. The Customer agrees to pay for all taxes, tariffs, and assessments levied or imposed by any government agency in connection with its Account or Service (excluding any income tax payable by us).
3. Overdrafts. The Customer must maintain sufficient available funds on deposit in an Account to meet its financial obligations towards the Bank at the time any such obligation shall be due and payable. If the Customer does not have sufficient available funds on deposit in an Account to cover the amount of a transaction (e.g. Item, automated payment or other electronic transaction), the Bank may reject the transaction without payment. If permitted by Applicable Law, the Bank may elect, however, in its sole discretion, to create an overdraft by permitting the transaction. The Bank also may impose a Fee for and/or charge interest, at a rate to be determined by the Bank, with respect to such overdrafts. If we permit an overdraft or otherwise allow an Account to drop below zero, you agree to pay the amount of the overdraft (standing to the debt of the Account) promptly, along with associated Fees and/or accrued interest, without notice or demand from us. The Customer agrees that the Bank may use subsequent deposits and other credits to the Account, to cover any overdraft existing in your Account, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law. We are under no obligation to permit any overdraft or to continue to permit overdrafts after having permitted an overdraft, in each case notwithstanding any prior action or course of dealing.

Any such closing or termination shall not affect the Customer's liabilities, including, without limitation, the indemnification obligations set forth in the Master Terms of Business, to the Bank arising prior to, or on, such closing or termination, all of which shall continue in full force and effect. Upon the closure of an Account, all Services linked to such Account are simultaneously terminated (unless otherwise determined by the parties) and the Bank's obligations in respect of such Account or Service will terminate. This Master Terms of Business may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, be amended or supplemented by the Bank by providing prior written notice to the Customer. Such amendments or supplements will be effective upon advance notice to the Customer, or at such time after such notice to be specified in the notice. 2. No Waiver. The Bank may delay enforcing its rights under the Master Terms of Business without losing them. No failure or delay in exercising any right, or any partial exercise of a right, will operate as a waiver of the full exercise of such right or a waiver of other rights.

Accounts are non-transferable and non-negotiable. Any attempted assignment by the Customer in violation of this Master Terms of Business shall be null and void and without effect. The Bank is not required to accept or recognize an attempted assignment of this Master Terms of Business, an Account or any interest in it, including a notice of security interest. The Bank shall be entitled to transfer and assign all of its rights and obligations under this Master Terms of Business and an Account to an affiliate of the Bank. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Customer hereby agrees to any such transfer and assignment without further consent of the Customer required. The Bank shall provide written notice to the Customer of any such transfer and assignment.
4. Electronic or Digital Signatures; Electronic Documents; Electronic Copies. The Customer consents to receive and execute documentation (including this Master Terms of Business or any other document delivered in connection herewith) in electronic form (for example, by an electronic or digital signature or other means of demonstrating assent acceptable to the Bank and in accordance with Applicable Law) as the Bank may require. The Customer further consents to deliver the same to the Bank via an Electronic Channel. The Bank may retain copies (paper, electronic or otherwise) of any document or Items relating to the Accounts and Services in a form preserving an image of any such document or Items, including signatures, or a regular business record and discard the original documents or Items. Subject to Applicable Law, any such form of document shall be admissible in evidence and have the same validity and enforceability as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business). The Customer hereby waives any objection to the use of any reproduction as described herein in lieu of the original for any purpose and in any forum, venue or jurisdiction, including objections arising from the Bank's role or acquiescence in the destruction of the originals. An electronic or digital signature or other means of demonstrating assent acceptable to the Bank and in accordance with Applicable Law shall be considered a valid signature as of the date thereof and the same delivered via Electronic Channels shall be effective as an original handwritten signature in binding the parties and for purposes of admissibility in evidence, validity, and enforceability. As used herein, the term "electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, facsimile, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

5. Severability; Interpretation. The validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Master Terms of Business shall not be affected thereby. Section and subsection headings are for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning of the Master Terms of Business, Country Addendum, Supplements and any Account-related documentation.
6. Force Majeure. The Bank shall not be liable for any loss, expense, failure to perform or delay caused by or resulting from an act of God, failure of any computer or communication system, legal constraint, civil or labor disturbance, accident, strike, fire, flood, war, military action, riot, civil strife, terrorist attack, public health emergency, communicable disease outbreak, earthquake, power outage, unavailability or failure of or the effect of rules or operations of a funds transfer system, government action, act of a third party, or any other cause that is beyond our reasonable control.
